

In 2002, the EU replaced traditional extradition - based upon bilateral treaties - with the European Arrest Warrant (EAW). 13 years later, a two-day advanced seminar investigates current developments in extradition law, with a specific focus on the EAW system.

University of Oxford, Worcester College / 29-30 AUGUST 2016

INTERNATIONAL EXTRADITION and the EUROPEAN ARREST WARRANT

Advanced seminar

www.eccle.eu

SUBJECTS COVERED

- The language of extradition
- Bilateral extradition treaties v. The “European Arrest Warrant” system
- Comparative extradition law
- Domestic and International case-law on the EAW
- How to challenge an extradition request and the rights of fugitive suspects
- Famous extradition cases (Assange, Polanski, Pinochet, etc...)
- Unlawful and disguised forms of extradition (i.e. extraordinary rendition, expulsion of aliens)

IDEAL FOR

Criminal defence lawyers, judges and prosecutors, academic lawyers expert in criminal justice & human rights, EU officials, doctoral students and graduates in law with an interest in criminal and EU matters.

PLAN OF ACTIVITIES

Program activities will begin at 9.30am on Monday August 29th and end at 5.30pm on Tuesday August 30th.

The Oxford program consists of a series of closed-door seminars held by international extradition experts - including renowned British Solicitors and Barristers - over the course of two days (training hours: 12). A social dinner in the College Hall will be hosted on Monday night. Seminars will be conducted through an innovative learning-by-doing style, which encourages group discussions and simulations of extradition and EAW proceedings. Seminars will also include the sharing of experiences, the viewing of mini-videos and the review of famous extradition cases.

What you will bring home

- in-depth knowledge of extradition and EAW law;
- review of recent developments in extradition case-law (ECJ, ECHR and selected domestic Supreme Courts);
- a set of skills for extradition cases;
- a set of “lines of argument” for EAW and extradition cases;
- useful extradition material, including cases, literature and samples of authentic EAWs;
- a network of colleagues experts in extradition-related matters.

Accommodation & Optional visit to London

Participants are encouraged to arrive in Oxford on Sunday August 28th and spend at least 2 nights in Oxford. Accommodation at a favourable rate is available at Worcester College (£125 per night including breakfast & meals). An optional visit to legal London (Inns of Court, Old Bailey, Supreme Court, etc...) may be arranged on the following Wednesday and Thursday (Aug 31st-Sept 1st) for those interested.
